I'LL STR-ING YOU UP!!!

YOU'RE THE PHOBIA THAT KILLED AKANE-CHAN'S MOM AND DAD!!

After they were eaten, she spent 15 minutes licking Kirari.

Kaisermutt Translation Notes

I started doing sound effects, which were sorely missing from last chapter. It's been a while since I cared enough for that, I think that ended with Marie-sama chapter 20.

On page 2 she says ランデブー (randebuu, rendezvous). I love Japanese because it's smart enough to ditch the absolute bullshit that is french orthography, which English needs to do.

The power of the Twilight Missile is that it cuts 間合い入った敵 (maai ni haitta teki, "enemy who got within distance" or "enemy with a pause") we don't have as many words for spaces both temporal and spacial.

I'm starting to feel like the "agonal hex" is going to piss some poeple off, or at the very least stick out as a weird choice. I hadn't read the earlier chapters in a few months and forgot how often 断末魔法 (danmatsuma[hou/karu]) would pop up. I'm going to look for some better puns for it.

On page 47 the verb Kirari uses is ぶっ吊るす (butturusu, I'll hang you [gone violent])
